January Edition

A Note from the Officers

With the election behind us and the new year beginning, we look forward to serving you in the upcoming year and are excited about the changes that will soon change our Civic Center for the better!

Volunteers are a huge asset and needed for the events and activities we look forward to planning this year. Please check out the volunteer tab on our official web page www.holidaylake.org for volunteer needs or get with any board member at our monthly meetings or weekly activities. Thank you to all the volunteers that made our Christmas event the best ever!! We couldn't do it without you!

Upcoming Events & Updates

Weekly Workshop January 11th is the beginning of our Art of Marriage Workshop. Patti Templeton with One Community Now will be leading the workshop. She can be reached at 727-858-6117 or patti@onecommunitynow.com. The registration deadline is January 18th.

Beginning February, you will have an opportunity to purchase a space for a personal message or to advertise your business in our monthly newsletter. The price is dictated by size. Email Kathy or Margot at hlecivicassociation@gmail.com for details.

WEEKLY ACTIVITIES

Purpose

The Holiday Lake Estates Civic Association's mission is to turn strangers into neighbors and neighbors into friends. We want our community to become a great place to call home. That is why a group of your neighbors volunteer to make the HLE Civic Association available for you to enjoy. We are a non-profit organization and our main purpose is to arrange community events to give everyone an opportunity to meet their neighbors and have some fun!

Hall Rentals

Need a place for your upcoming party, wedding, shower, or get together? We can help! The community building is available to rent for all your needs. For more information: Call Margot Zukowski 727-945-2148 hlecivicassociation@gmail.com or visit www.holidaylake.org and click on the rental hall tab.
